

6516209954.txt

I listen to XM radio every day on my way into work. The traffic channel has been a huge help to me with getting through town & avoiding areas that are heavily congested. I pay to have this service and should have a variety of options to choose from. Yes, I could listen to local radio stations to get similar information that I receive on XM. But I choose to listen to XM radio.